CITY PREPARED RECEIVE STATE SHRINE HORDES

Committees Report Plans
Complete for Friday's Ceremonial.

2 TRAINS SCHEDULED

Advanced Guard Here to Assist Local Shriners
Prepare Program.

With decorations hanging from every business house on principle streets in the city, Ada considered herself prepared to receive the hordes of Shriners here Friday. Committees appointed from the Pontotoc County Shrine club had prepared every detail Thursday and were reporting ready to receive the influx of visitors from every corner of the state. Shrine matrons also announced their completion of plans for receiving wives of Shriners here in the annual ceremonial. Visiting Shrine matrons will be met at trains and escorted to local headquarters where they will start on their tour for the day's entertainment.

Merchants are assisting the program in every degree, making their places of business an open invitation to inspection and visit from visiting Shriners.

Two trains will arrive here Friday morning. One train will be routed from Muskogee and another from Oklahoma City. Both trains will arrive here Friday morning in time to start the ceremonial program.

Potentates and advanced guards from the India and Bedouin Temples arrived in the city during the early part of the week and have been aiding members of the local Shrine club in preparing for the ceremonial here.

By an order from the city commission, Main street from Rennie to Townsend avenue, will be closed to traffic from 12 o'clock until 2:30 Friday afternoon, according to an announcement of Shrine Club officials.

This action was taken to assure Shrine Club officials that no interference would hamper the parade and Ceremonial activities.

Friday's Program. All Friday morning will be spent in the registration of the novices and carrying out preliminary plans. Luncheons will be prepared and other matters of early entertainment arranged. In the afternoon a mammoth parade led by the bands and drum corps will be held. Immediately following the parade, which will begin at 1:30 p. m., the first ceremonial section, in charge of the Bedouin Temple, will begin. It will start at 2:00 o'clock. At 2:30 p. m. the second ceremonial section, under the direction of the India Temple will begin and the third ceremonial section will begin at 3:30.

A picture show depicting important Shrine scenes will be held at the McSwain theatre on the evening following the closing of the ceremonials. The night will be spent in entertainment of the visitors. That the crowd expected will be one of the largest ever seen here, is the opinion of local committees. Preparations for this invasion of the state are being made.

"The crowd will not be too large for us," committees on entertainment said today.

Writ of Mandamus to Compel Walton Pay Checks, Filed

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 23.—A permanent writ of mandamus to compel Mayor J. C. Walton to sign warrants for payment of city employees salaries was filed in district court here today.

The mayor refused to sign the salary checks after a dispute with members of the city commission over the employment of additional policemen. The mayor advocated the addition to the force but two commissioners refused to endorse the plan.

Hearing on the mandamus petition was set for two o'clock this afternoon.

Girls' Club Send Turkey to Harding

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—A 41-pound turkey, fattened on chocolate and other delicacies, a Thanksgiving gift to President and Mrs. Harding, today waited the arrival of noon Monday, November 27, when it starts the journey to the white house in a specially prepared motor truck.

The turkey, "Supreme II," is a gift of the Harding Girls' Club at Morris and company, packers.

The club sent its first turkey to President Harding when he was visiting in the canal zone. Last year the bird made the trip to Washington in an air plane, robed in a sweater, helmet and goggles. This year he will be better protected from the hardships of the trip.

COURT ABANDONED AFTER DECISION

Legal Battery Files Out of City; Courts Empty
Until Monday.

Ada breathed free again today, following the decision of Judge Thomas A. Edwards, Wednesday afternoon to recess court until Monday morning, when the motion to quash the indictments returned against Governor J. B. A. Robertson, charged with accepting a bribe, will be heard.

Judge Edwards rendered this decision following his court order sustaining the demurrer to the motion to remand the hearing back to Okmulgee county, where the indictments was returned against Robertson.

Immediately after the decision of Judge Edwards, attorneys, court attaches, aides and newspaper representatives completed their work here and left on first trains to Okmulgee and Oklahoma City. Governor Robertson and his attorneys left on trains later yesterday evening for Oklahoma City.

Counsels for state or defense would make no statement concerning the continuance of the trial Monday. Both were apparently pleased with the recess for the remainder of the week.

No late filings have been made in the case and probably will not be made before the hearing of the motion to quash the indictment here Monday, since practically every legal action has already been taken to prevent the case from being tried here.

Should the governor be successful in his attempt to have the indictment quashed the proceedings against him would die and there will be no jury trial. If the indictment is upheld the road will be opened for immediate trial.

Numerous witnesses have been summoned for hearing next Monday and it was indicated that the merits of the case might be gone into as well as the legal questions raised by the governor's counsel against the indictment.

The indictment was returned by a grand jury at Okmulgee early in the year and charges the governor with accepting a part of a $25,000 bribe to permit an insolvent state bank to operate.

Order of Shrine Parade

The parade will start promptly at 1:30 at the Boggs Motor Company building on East Main street. It will proceed west on Main to Stockton avenue, south to Twelfth street, east on Twelfth to Rennie, north to Main and west again to the McSwain theatre. Between the Harris Hotel and the Oklahoma State Bank both patrols will give drill stunts during the parade.

No parking of cars on Main street between Rennie and Townsend will be permitted between noon and 3 o'clock. Every one is asked to park cars on side streets at this time. This arrangement is by order of Mayor Fisher and Chief of Police Adair.

"TIGER OF FRANCE" CAPTURES NEW YORK

Georges Clemenceau reviews guard of honor at New York city hall, after arrival in U. S. Insert, latest photo of the "Tiger," taken after his arrival.

Georges Clemenceau has won another victory. The aged "Tiger of France" took New York by storm. It is estimated that a million citizens took an active part in giving Clemenceau rousing welcome that exceeded all expectations. His was the arrival of a conqueror. After a parade through the streets Clemenceau reviewed the "guard of honor" before the city hall and stood, head bowed in reverence, as the military band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

TWO INJURED AS CAR OVERTURNS

One Probably Seriously Injured When Racer is Thrown from Road.

Two men were injured, one seriously, and three others narrowly escaped injury when a racer car in which the five were riding left the road in the residential section of Allen about one o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The men were trying out the racer which had just been rebuilt. After completing a record run out on a country road, they were coming back up town at a fast rate when the driver lost control of the machine. It turned turtle, badly bruising a man named Estridge and breaking the arm of another. Three of the men were thrown upon the grass uninjured.

An ambulance call to the Criswell-Myers establishment was put in and J. U. Criswell left shortly after one o'clock for Allen. He made the run in an hour and brought Estridge to the hospital at Ada. He was reported in a critical condition today, but doctors held out hope for recovery.

Names of the other men in the car could not be learned. All are residents of Allen and well known there.

Reports here today were that the car overturned directly in front of the home of Dr. Ross of Allen. The men were thrown into his front yard.

Damage to the machine was said to be about $100. It had been rebuilt for racing purposes.

A process of silver plating requiring but one half the usual time was discovered recently in England.

Sidelights on Ceremonial

Unaffected Arabs of the Oasis of Ada maintain that "mud-slinging" is not restricted to political campaigns alone.

"Doc" McCauley, popular young banker and ladies' candidate for the Shrine ring, stated today that he feared foul play when so many of the campaign managers are in changeable moods.

Aspiring candidates for the Ring low as how there should be a "Who's Who" published in these parts to register the late changes in campaign supporters.

Shrine ring dopesters point out that the winner of the treasure will survive the versatility of managers.

Opponents of "Doc" McCauley, one of the ring candidates, say that he is spending so much money to win the ring that he will be in hard luck if he loses out. The hand bill barrage opened Thursday morning and at present time did not show any signs of letting up.

Flags were hung over the streets last night in preparation for the big ceremonial Friday afternoon. Nearly every leading business house in the downtown district was also decorated at noon today.

Arrival of the advance guard of those making the pilgrimage across the burning sands was announced today when representatives of the India Temple of Oklahoma City and the Bedouin Temple of Muskogee arrived here to prepare the way for their armies.

Business men of the city who are working on committees on entertainment and preparation for the Shrine Ceremonials are going at a pace that will require considerable "elbow grease" to keep up until the affair is closed about midnight Friday night. Some have quit their stores and are walking the streets, directing the preliminary arrangements and injecting "pep" into all they come in contact with.

No matter what part of the ceremonial attracts most attention before it is over with, the spotlight at present is turned to the race for the Shrine ring. There are only about a half dozen who are making a mad scramble for the honor.

A football game between the Sulphur School for Deaf and East Central Tigers will be played Friday afternoon. It will be one of the side events of the ceremonial and the Sulphur caravan which will cross the burning sands to make the pilgrimage to Ada tomorrow is to escort the Sulphur school here for the combat.

It is understood following receipt of information spread around the Oasis that the main stunt of the Ceremonial will be pulled in the show windows of Coffman, Bobbitt and Sparks.

KING URGES NEW PARLIAMENT ACT

Asks Ameliorative Measure of George Cabinet be Followed Out.

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The new parliament will be asked to continue and extend the ameliorative measures prepared by the Lloyd George ministry as regarding trade and employment and also to guarantee a loan for the restoration of Austria, said King George today in his speech from the throne officially opening the session.

The king expressed the hope that the Lausanne conference might result "in the establishment of peace and the restoration of security to the inhabitants of the regions which have recently been the scene of so much suffering."

The utterance of the king which attracted most attention was that forecast extension of the ameliorative measures for trade and employment.

Prosperity and tranquility must be founded on improved trade and decrease of unemployment, Prime Minister Bonar Law said during his campaign.

While the king was speaking thousands of unemployed were continuing their meetings yesterday in London asking relief from present conditions.

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON, Nov. 23.—J. Ramsey MacDonald, Loavere, assumed his new position as leader of the opposition in the house of Commons this afternoon and in the debate on the speech from the throne declared that statements in which the king's address regarded unemployment was so profoundly unsatisfactory to labor. He said it showed that the government had no real appreciation of a terrible tragedy.

House Committee Asks Keller for Proof in Charge

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The house judiciary committee adopted a resolution today calling on Representative Keller, republican, Minnesota, to present by December 1, a statement of facts showing the alleged act or facts from which he has asked an impeachment of Attorney General Daugherty.

Mr. Keller further was requested to name as far as possible the "persons involved in each transaction, the time and place thereof and witnesses by whom such facts can be established."

Ada Streets Rejoice Now; To Be Washed

All cars must be off the streets of the city by one o'clock tonight, according to an order issued today by city commissioners. Ada Fire Department and a force of men from the street department will be out with fire hose at that time to wash off the pavement in the business district.

Main street from the Katy to the Frisco and Broadway from Tenth to the Fire Station, Townsend from Twelfth to Tenth, and Twelfth from the city hall to Townsend will be flushed.

The streets are being washed in preparation for the big Shrine ceremonial Friday. Cars must be off the street in order to permit the work to progress satisfactorily, commissioners said.

FORMER ITALIAN PREMIER DYING

Sonnino Suffers Stroke of Apoplexy; Physicians Claim is Fatal.

(By the Associated Press)

ROME, Nov. 23.—Baron Sidney Sonnino, former premier and foreign minister suffered a stroke of apoplexy today, and is dying.

The stroke was described by the baron's physicians as cerebral apoplexy and his condition, it was stated, left no hope for his recovery. Sidney Sonnino is 75 years of age. He was prime minister twice before the war but it was through his services as foreign minister throughout the war and during the peace conference in Paris that he won his greatest prominence in international affairs.

Baron Sidney Sonnino, "the silent statesman of Italy," disliked to talk but could be fluent in five languages. He was Prime Minister of Italy in 1906 and again in 1910. From 1914 to 1915, he was Minister of Foreign Affairs. He also served as Minister of Finance, as Minister of the Interior and as a member of parliament of "the first financier of Europe, the man who had probed the economic life of the world to the core."

"I do not shine, I do not glitter," he said on one occasion in the Chamber of Deputies. "I leave that sort of thing to my political opponents. I am satisfied if I can reveal an occasional gleam of common sense." At another time, addressing his indifferent colleagues, he said: "I propose to put a little knowledge of the state and of the nation's revenue into your heads, whether you feel interested or not."

While Minister of Finance he was credited with having laid the foundation for his country's stability from the revenue standpoint and for his establishment of budget surpluses.

Conservative Despite Wealth
Baron Sonnino was one of the most abstemious of men in spite of his wealth. Even before the war, he practiced the most rugged economies. Italy could not borrow favorably in the London market by reason of her enormous public debt. Sonnino lowered it by vigorous taxation, by reducing public salaries and expenditures and dismissing needless employees. The politicians, therefore, hated him.

"I would not think of having a fire in my bedroom," he protested to the deputies on one occasion. "Our Italian winters are too beautiful to be spoiled in that fashion." When a Sicilian deputy complained of the food supply in a crisis of the war, Sonnino grimly replied: "I have tasted no meat for a week."

A Jew by race, a Protestant by faith and a native of Egypt, the man who was one day destined to handle the Italian ship of destiny, was born of an Italian Jewish father and a Scotch mother on March 11, 1847, on the banks of the Nile. He was educated partly in England and at the University of Pisa.

Sonnino's grandfather migrated from the ghetto of Leghorn, Italy, to Egypt where he built the enormous fortune as a banker, a fortune which the future Premier of Italy enjoyed.

Before entering politics he was editor of the magazine "Rassegna" which he founded and in which for years he aired his political and economic views. He also wrote and lectured on Dante and Petrarch of whose works he was a close student. Later he became one of the priors of the Giornale d'Italia.

WORKERS REMOVE DEAD FROM MINE TRAP EXPLOSION

Believed Death Toll Will Exceed Present Total of Eighty-Four

MANY NEGROES HURT

Physicians Work Through Night to Rescue Mine Sufferers.

(By the Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 23.—Eighty-four lives were lost and 60 persons were injured as a result of an accident and explosion yesterday in the Dolomite Coal Mine No. 3 of the Woodward Iron company. Of the injured 35 were re-to their homes; 25 were in hospitals. Work of identification of the dead had been completed, but it was believed that there were 38 white dead and 20 white injured. The accident came almost simultaneously in trapping 477 men. Weary hours had passed before 333 of these workers had escaped uninjured in two adjoining mines.

(By the Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 23.—Work of removing the dead from Dolomite Mine No. 3, of the Woodward Iron company, in which 475 men were trapped by an explosion yesterday, was renewed with vigor by rescue crews at daylight.

Company officials estimated that the list of death might be increased from 33. Check of the injured indicated that the list of 60 was approximately correct. Of the dead 5 were white; of the injured 80 per cent were negroes, according to company officials.

At least 50 men, who are listed in the casualties were either killed or injured when a train of strip cars running wild from the tangle crashed into the mine yard in the main entry. This action caused the snapping of an electric cable, which in turn set off the blast which resulted in the explosion. The concussion rocked the earth for miles around and occurred so nearly simultaneously with the accident which preceded it that the victims were not aware of what was happening.

All Live Persons Out

Announcement was made this morning that "all live persons had been removed from the mine." Company officials announced at 10 o'clock that all the bodies had been removed from the pit and at that hour a check was being made to determine the extent of the list of casualties.

Despite the fact that he was already feeling the deadly effects of the deadly black damp, Dr. Ed Wright, physician for the American Steel and Wire company, a member of the first volunteer crew to enter the ill fated No. 3 shaft, battled desperately through the hours of the night and did not cease until he himself had fallen unconscious.

Along with George Brown, D. W. Ewing and Matthew Norton, Dr. Wright explored all the wings of the mine where all the injured were to be found. After hours of administering first aid, Dr. Wright began to feel the effects of the poisonous carbon-dioxide gas, but continued, and it was not until he had fallen unconscious that members of his team were aware of his silent suffering.

The physician is not in a serious condition although he is today confined to his home.

Parties battling against the after damp for three and a half hours, sixteen miners pocketed in the 42 entry of the mine, were rescued after they had been given up for lost.

As minutes went into hours, the after damp began to effect the trapped men. A brattice of protecting wall of coal dust was then piled up to shut off the bad air.

When members of the rescue team arrived with oxygen helmets they found all the men still conscious, and the group was conveyed to the surface in a state of nervous exhaustion.

THE COTTON CROP.

At the outset of the cotton season the News expressed the hope that 10,000 bales of cotton would be ginned in Pontotoc county. Our hope has been realized, for the report of November 1 places the number ginned to that date at 9,907. Of course some has come in since then and before now the 10,000 mark has been passed. Last year only 3,600 bales were ginned during the entire season and the price was considerably below the average for the present season. Jackson county, which led the state last year, is ahead again this season with 32,376 bales.

In the weevil infested part of the state Bryan county shows marked improvement, 13,972 bales having been ginned this season as compared with 2,743 for 1921. Garvin jumps from 8,500 to 19,000 and McCurtain from 5,600 to 14,800. In all of these counties a hard fight against the weevil was put up. Just how effective it was is a mooted question, since the weather played an important part.

"KNOCKING WOOD" FOR LUCK.

Why does a person "knock wood" when he does not want his luck to desert him?

It is believed to originate from the old Danish myth, says London Answers.

According to the legend an old Danish sea captain, just before starting on a voyage, would always tap on the side of his ship, and then stand in silence and listen for a few minutes.

His belief was that as there were so many millions of this kind in the timbers of the ship, the elves of the wood would come out and bless the ship and insure it a safe return.

Other Danish skippers followed this practice, and, strangely enough, at least so we are told, the vessels so submitted to this quaint ritual, seemed to acquire immunity from the perils of the sea.

As a result the superstition became a custom which has lived to the present day.—Exchange.

The action of the senate in seating Mrs. Felton, appointed from Georgia to succeed Thomas Watson, was a high compliment to the lady. Under the rules which have governed such cases heretofore Walter George, who was recently elected to the vacancy, would have been seated on the opening day but he gallantly stood aside and urged that the lady be given the honor of a seat for a day, thus making her the first woman Senator in the history of the United States. The objection of a single senator would have kept her from this coveted honor, but he it said to the credit of the 90-odd senators, not one raised an objection.

The Shriners are coming! If the weather is favorable Friday, one of the largest crowds ever seen in the city will be here, if all forecasts are correct. Although the race for the ring honor is getting warm, it is said no casualties are anticipated. The citizens will make the Shriners feel at home, just as they always make visitors feel, and we hope to see them go away feeling that Ada is the best town in the world.

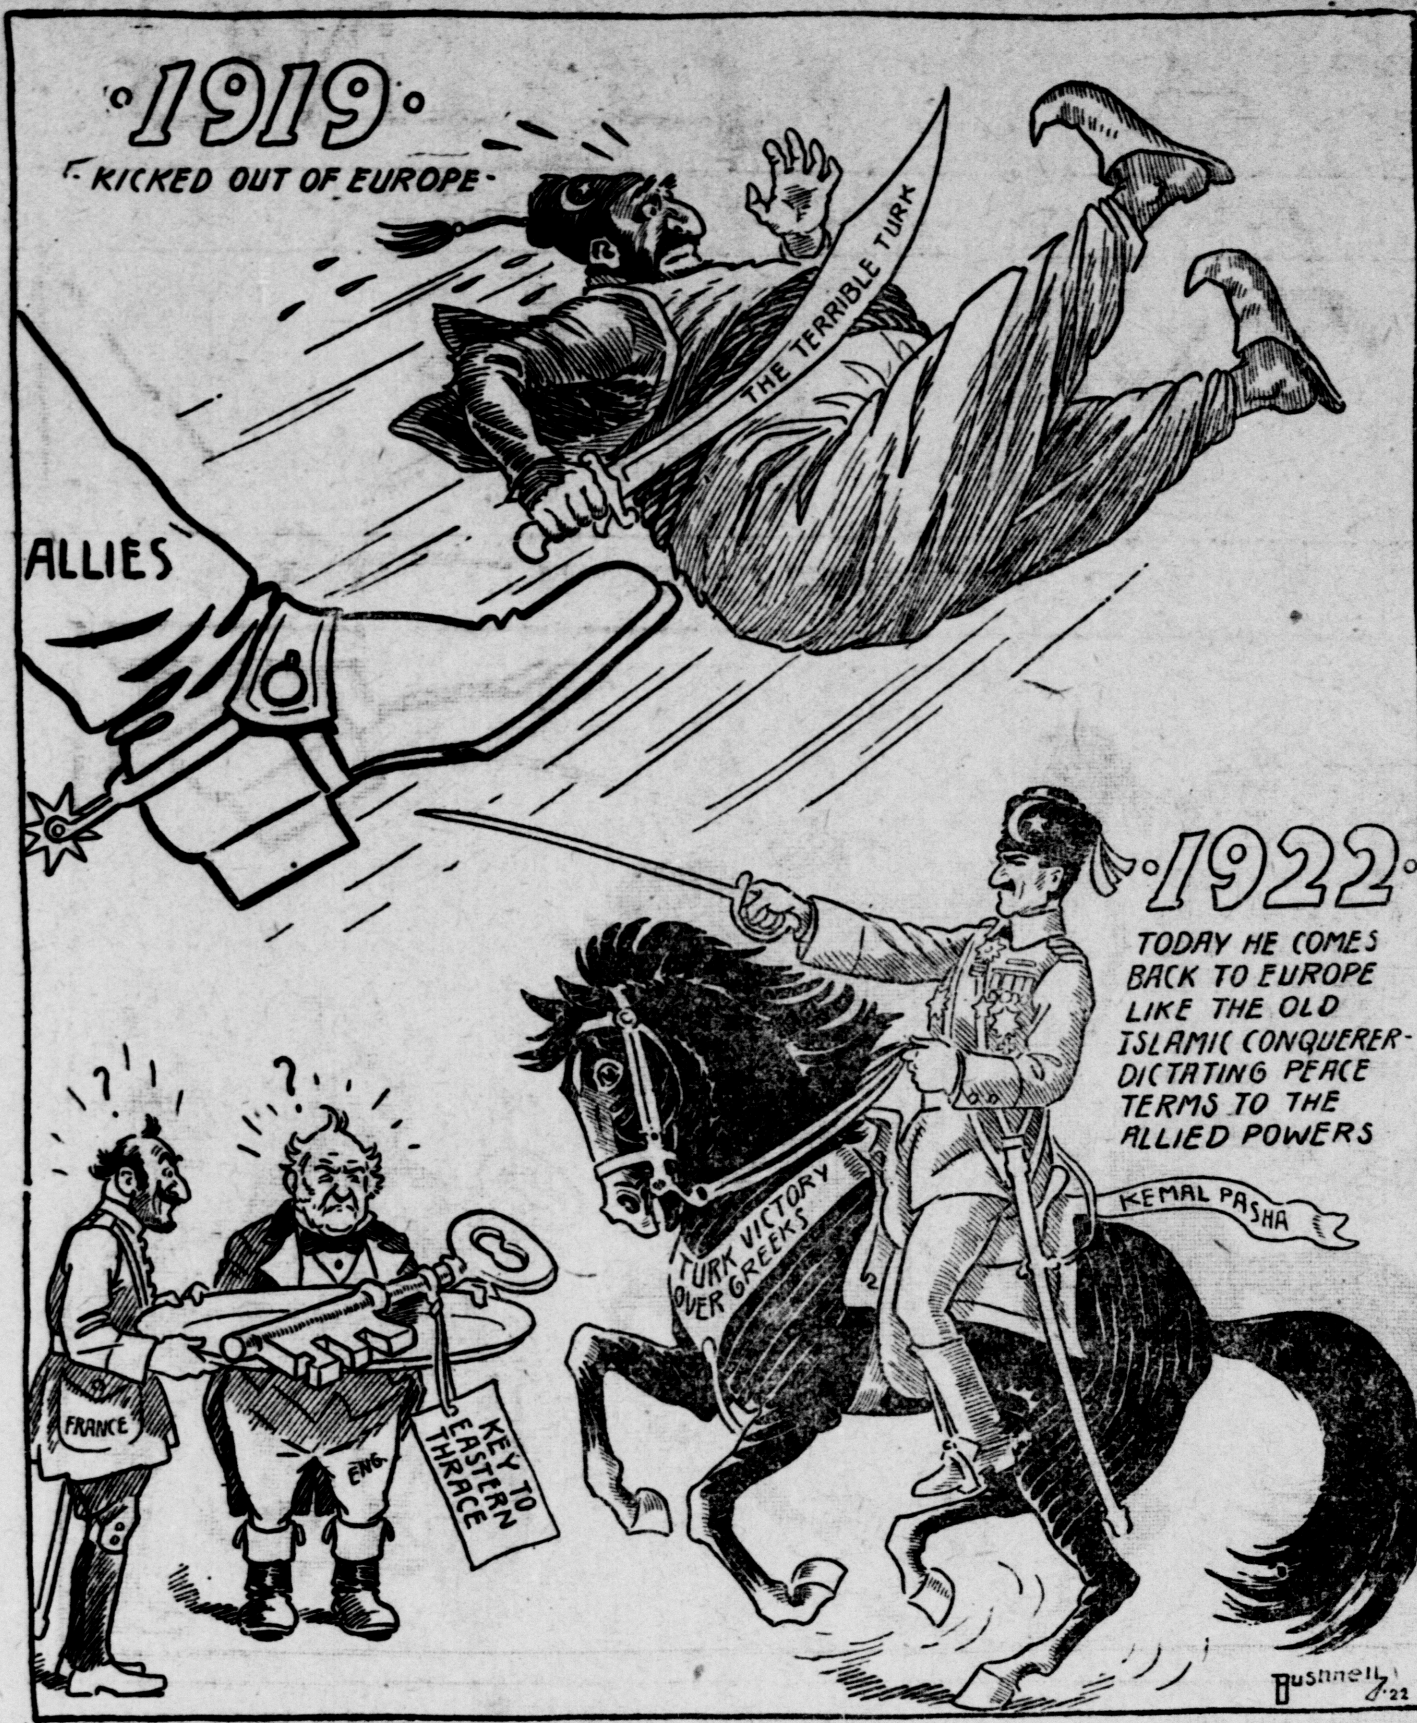

When we were residing temporarily in Tulsa two years ago it was nothing unusual to hear people inquire where Ada was located. With the Odd Fellows here some time ago, the governor's trial and now the gathering of the Shriners, the town is in a fair way to answer the question so pointedly that its location will not be a matter of doubt in the minds of anyone.

The ring contest among the Shriners is just about the liveliest affair on record. It takes a man with the head of a politician to handle this scrap and when the battle is over the leaders will have fully qualified as experts and will be in a position to carry the state for any man they get behind in the next election. When it comes to digging up issues they are some stem winders.

Man is a creature of extremes. When times are prosperous he fondly imagines that this condition will last forever and thinks it is not worth while to lay up for a rainy day. Then when it turns the other way he is hard to convince that the sun is still shining behind the dark clouds and will again shine forth some day.

It is pleasing to be on the pinnacle of popularity and many put forth every possible effort to reach this proud point. However, we are warned by the Scripture to go a trifle slow when everybody speaks well of us. It is not a good sign and generally indicates that the popular one is on the edge of a precipice from which he is likely to tumble with extreme suddenness.

THE OLD AND NEW TURKEY

ADA AND WILSON READY FOR TILT

Little Known of Strength of Visitors; Important Game in Schedule.

Wilson high school team arrived here today for the long-expected game between Wilson and Ada high schools.

Both teams had completed hard programs of training for the game and reports were that both were in first class condition for today's game. Little word of the strength of the Wilson team could be learned prior to the battle, which was to start at three o'clock this afternoon on the high school gridiron.

High school held both morning and afternoon classes this morning, running on part time. The afternoon will be given over to pep meetings for the game.

Prof. W. A. Hill pointed out today that nine of his best men will be playing their last games for the high school as they graduate before another season. The game with Wilson and the Thanksgiving game with Atoka will see the finish of the schedule for Ada. Potts, Carr, Rayburn, Molloy, Smith, Wright, Gregg and King who will be lost this year.

Coach Cox said he was expecting a victory today, but that the chief interest was in the Atoka game. With the exception of Ardmore, he will not have played a team this season with the strength that has been shown by the Atoka eleven. Then, too, he points out, he wants revenge for the defeat at the hands of Atoka in 1921.

A pep meeting was held downtown last night by the high school students and the day was given over to encouragement for the local team. "Bullfrogs" of the college were invited over to assist in injecting pep into the supporters of the Ada team. One of the largest crowds of the year was expected out to attend the game.

Complete Works of Russian Premier to be Published Soon

(By the Associated Press)
RIGA—A complete edition of the works of Nikolai Lenin is about to appear in Russia. It is to include everything he has written and will, in all probability, consist of 19 large volumes of over 400 pages each.

The material is arranged in chronological order. The first volume will be called "The early development of the Socialistic Labor Movement during the period of 1894-1899." The essays written by Lenin when in exile fill several volumes. The eighth volume is entitled "The First Russian Revolution, 1905-1907." Volume 9 deals with the agricultural question; volume 13 is on the world war; volumes 15-18 describe the "Reign of the Proletariat," and the last volume deals with the "Question of Nationalities."

It is estimated that the earth can support a population of 6,000,000,000, a total which, it is further estimated, will be reached about 2,100 at the present rate of increase.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE CEREMONIAL

Rumor, are rampant here that the banker from Henryetta who is a candidate for the ring is bringing a 21 piece band to push his candidacy for the honor. This is causing no little consternation among the Ada contenders for the ring, who are having a nice little battle of their own.

It is understood from two old time ring managers of past experience that there is a possibility of Badger "Doc" McCauley withdrawing from the race in favor of H. B. Roach, should proper force be brought to bear.

Road razers, baggers, cock-roaches, insects, politics, turnips, mud-slinging, propaganda campaigns with hastily printed literature have entered into the contest for the Shrine ring. One candidate even staged a parade with band music.

The Globe store is all dressed up for the Shriners tomorrow. One of the show windows is artistically decorated with a desert scene.

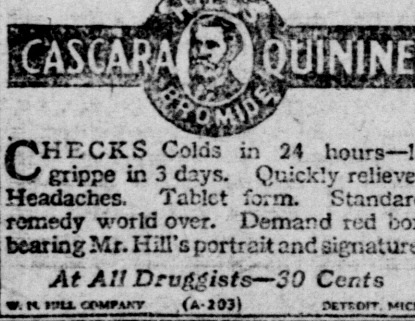

Nothing definite could be learned but reports today were that one of the candidates for the Shrine ring had written a check for $5,000 to the Pontotoc Shrine club to insure his election to the honor.

Headquarters for the Shriners—the Boggs Motor company building on East Main—were made ready today. Seats, registration tables, information bureaus and check rooms were being prepared. Decorations were also elaborate.

Many cars of the city to be used tomorrow for the entertainment of the Shriners and their wives were being elaborately decorated today.

A large bronze statue of the Prince of Wales is being erected at Bombay to commemorate his visit to India.

Heroes of Child Favorite Readers of Varied Range

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO—Because she was too good to be real—a smug little hypocrite—Elsie Dinsmore was ruled from the childhood hall of fame by Neysa McMein, the artist. Miss McMein was one of a number of prominent men and women voting on a list of childhood heroes and heroines submitted by the National Kindergarten and Elementary college.

The eleven highest in the order named were: Christ, Lincoln, Washington, Jo (Little Women), Sir Galahad, King Arthur, David, Daniel, Cinderella, Joseph and Joan of Arc. Captain Kidd, Gulliver, Huck Finn, Tom Sawyer, Robin Hood, Columbus and Alice in Wonderland were other heroes voted upon favorably by Miss McMein.

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University voted for Christ, Columbus, Daniel, Joan of Arc, Joseph, Moses, Robinson Crusoe, Ruth, Washington and William Tell.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, voted for Ben Hur, Hiawatha, David, King Arthur, Lincoln, Peter Pan, St. Galahad, Uncle Remus and Washington.

Woodrow Wilson replied that he "did not feel wise enough" to sit in judgment on childhood heroes.

San Francisco is to have a general headquarters building for all women's organizations.

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake, Michigan. "About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weakness and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish."—Mrs. MARY SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine.

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

From School Room

to the Practice of Law

Mrs. M. E. Hill has learned that dissatisfaction is the first step to success. A few years ago she was a school teacher. She earned a paltry salary. She could only look forward to endless years of drudgery. But she was not satisfied. She longed for more money, more freedom, more independence. Then came the turning point in her life. She quit and came to HILL'S. One day she heard Mr. Hill give a talk on "The Power of Will." She was tremendously impressed. She resolved to have the power of will. She determined to succeed.

With HILL'S training as a foundation, she began studying law. Today she is a practicing attorney, and earns as much for one case as she made in months as a teacher.

HILL'S teaches more than business—it teaches power and success. Are you dissatisfied, too? Then mail the coupon. It will bring HILL'S SUCCESS BOOK. It will tell you how YOU can succeed. Act now. You can do as well as the hundreds who have risen to success by the aid of HILL'S training.

Millinery Course To Be Organized

Under the direction of the State department of Vocational Education an evening class in millinery will be organized, Tuesday evening, November 28, at the chamber of commerce rooms.

This course will be open to all women sixteen years of age or older, who are homemakers or are engaged in gainful occupations, but will not be opened to students doing regular day school work. The course will be planned to meet the needs of those enrolled in the class. Each student will pay for her own materials, but with the exception of a small enrollment fee, no other expenses need be incurred during the course.

The class will be organized by Miss Francisco of the college faculty, who is local director of Vocational Education in Ada, but will be taught by Miss Grace Rushing one of our city teachers. Miss Rushing is well qualified for this work, having received her instruction in the University of Colorado, where her work received the highest grade in class. During last summer she taught the work in millinery in the East Central college and her results were most commendable.

The Chamber of Commerce has kindly offered the use of their building as a meeting place for the class and this is most desirable as it is well lighted and is centrally located.

All women interested in the organization of the class in millinery are asked to meet at the Chamber of Commerce on East Main Tuesday evening, November 28 at 7:30 p. m. Anyone desiring further information call Miss Francisco at 825-J or Miss Rushing at 314-R.

Well Known Ada Couple Married in Henryetta

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. F. P. Watson, 710 West Gentry, Henryetta, Okla., on the evening of November 22, when Rev. C. C. Morris, pastor of the First Baptist church of Ada, performed the ceremony that made Miss Mable McKeel the wife of Earl Vernon Parker.

The bride is employed in the Henryetta schools and is well known in Ada, having graduated at East Central college in 1921. She is a niece of Dr. Sam A. McKeel here and has a host of friends who join in extending congratulations to the couple.

The groom is well known in Ada and is now employed with the Gorman Furniture company in Henryetta.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker will make Henryetta their home for the present.

OIL PRODUCTION ON INCREASE OVER U. S.

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. —The daily average gross crude oil production for the United States for the week ending November 18 was 1,645,300 barrels, compared with 1,640,400 barrels the preceding week, shows an increase of 4,900 barrels, according to the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute.

The production east of the Rocky Mountains for the week was 1,195,300 barrels compared with 1,195,400 barrels, a decrease of 100 barrels.

Oklahoma-Kansas showed a daily average increase of 2,500 barrels. In Oklahoma, average daily production, of the Osage Nation for the week ending November 18 was 129,150 barrels against 126,100 barrels the preceding week. The Lyons-Quinn pool showed a daily average gross production of 14,250 barrels as compared with 14,250 barrels for the preceding week and the Bristow pool was 58,150 barrels with 57,850 barrels for the preceding week.

Indian Race Not Dying Out Claims U. S. Commissioner

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23. —The Indian race is not a dying one. E. B. Merritt, Assistant Indian Commissioner, says the 340,817 Indians now in the United States represent an increase of approximately 13,500 over the number ten years ago.

The increase has been brought about, the assistant commissioner says, by improved housing conditions and increased hospital and medical facilities. There are 78 hospitals at the Indian reservations and schools, and there are employed in the Indian Service 150 physicians, 81 nurses and 70 field matrons, the latter visiting the homes of Indians to improve living conditions.

"We are educating in our Indian schools and in the public schools of the country 60,000 Indian children," Mr. Merritt says, "and are asking for increased appropriations with a view of ultimately placing every Indian child of school age in school, on the theory that education, industry and sanitary living conditions are the solutions of the Indian problem."

FORMER ITALIAN PREMIER DYING

Baron Sonnino was always interested in the welfare of the Italian farmers. His book, "The Peasants in Sicily," was a notable contribution to public knowledge of agricultural conditions in that country. One of his aims, he said, was to revive southern Italy economically and morally. He also built local railways, put isolated regions in touch with great markets, strengthened the farm banks and assisted villages and towns in fighting illiteracy. He possessed a wonderful library. The Baron never married.

POLITICAL POT BOILS IN OHIO
Both Parties Center Efforts on Carrying President's Own State.

(By the Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3. — One of the hardest fought political struggles in its history is being staged in President's Harding's home state of Ohio, where both republicans and democrats have made the president's administration an issue with both parties claiming success.
Ohio voters have been urged by the republicans to uphold the work of President Harding's administration. Accomplishments of the national administration have been recounted by both native and imported campaigners, virtually every member of the president's cabinet having visited Ohio for the republicans.
The democrats have concentrated on the republican national and state administrations. The democratic campaign has been conducted almost entirely by home talent, but these home speakers have made a campaign equal to the republican effort.
The result is that, despite a plurality of approximately 400,000 for Mr. Harding in Ohio two years ago, the democrats are making large claims for the success of the entire democratic ticket in Ohio at the election on November 7. W. W. Durbin, democratic campaign manager, said he believed the democratic majority would reach 200,000. He said that polls conducted by Cincinnati and Columbus newspapers showed the democrats would have a big lead. He pointed out that these polls two years ago indicated an overwhelming victory for the republicans.
William H. Miller, the republican campaign manager, insisted that the entire republican ticket in Ohio would be successful, but he refused to indicate by what margin.
"We are busy getting out the republican vote, and believe that it will all be out," he said. "I do not believe that any republican votes will switch to the democratic column. We are depending upon the republican votes."
Democratic Chairman Durbin pointed to the list of cabinet members and other out of the state speakers who have been sent into Ohio by the republicans as indicating in his opinion that the republicans are worried about the result in Ohio.
Among such republican campaign orators have been Secretaries Daugherty, Hoover, Hughes, Davis, Denby, Wallace and Postmaster General Work of President Harding's cabinet, and Senator Edge of New Jersey, ex-Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Governor Morrow of Kentucky and Roy Haynes, federal prohibition commissioner.
In a speech at Middletown, Ohio, in support of the republican candidates, Senator Edge declared that the verdict of the voters in Ohio "should settle for all time any question of President Harding's capable handling of the grave responsibilities placed upon his shoulders. Ohio is on trial!"
He added that party leaders who formerly said "Look to Maine" now say "Look to Ohio."
In addition to the speakers from other states, Colonel Carmi A. Thompson of Cleveland, the republican nominee for governor and Congressman Simeon D. Fess, the republican nominee for senator, have stumped the state from one end to the other. Governor Harry L. Davis also has taken the stump for the republican ticket, although he is not a candidate for re-election.
One of the democratic side, Atlee Pomerene, the democratic candidate for re-election to the Senate, and A. Victor Donahey, the democratic nominee for governor, have borne a brunt of the campaigning, although former Governor James M. Cox of Dayton, who was the democratic nominee for president against Mr. Harding two years ago, has also taken the stump.
Both parties are paying particular attention to the election of Ohio's congressional delegation of 22 now solidly republican.

BOOZE SMUGGLING IS POPULAR IN NORWAY
(By the Associated Press)
CHRISTIANA, Nov. 3. — Illicit dealing in liquor in prohibition Norway has proved such a profitable trade that it is estimated twenty per cent of the population is actively engaged in rum smuggling. The excitement and adventure involved appeal to many people, and are by no means a small factor in causing them to enter the business.
The competition in the trade at sea is so great that ninety-six per cent alcohol from Germany is bought at thirty cents a quart on the boats and sold ashore for two dollars. The greater portion of this stuff is rank and contains a large percentage of wood alcohol and other poisonous ingredients.
Once ashore this liquor finds a ready market at many times its value, and it is sold under the eyes of the government in all of the cities and towns of the restricted districts.
The press of Norway agrees that the situation is little short of a public scandal, but it is not able to offer any suggestions as to how the revenue department should cope with the law violators.
Meanwhile the government is losing millions of crowns, as the liquor brings no revenue into the state treasury.

MIAMI.—A small coin, struck by the town of Paestum, Italy, in 275 B. C., is owned by R. M. Holloy of this city. Mr. Holloy yesterday received a report on the coin from the Smithsonian Institute.

Farmers' Column
By Byron Norrell
When in Allen a few days ago I was told that about 1,000 bales of cotton have been received there and that it was expected that the season's receipts would total 1,200.
Farmers around Steedman are planning to plant broom corn next year. Agent Hill states that already about 200 acres are in prospect. One man has agreed to buy a threshing machine and a tractor for the season. A small quantity was raised this year and I am told did very well. Mr. Hill states that some of the farmers around Owl Creek are also considering the matter of planting some land in this crop. There is no reason why broom corn should not prove a profitable crop in this county. G. M. Pitt, who lives in the Sunshine community, has raised a small patch every year which he uses to make brooms in his home factory, and some excellent specimens were exhibited at the county fair.

Part of Pontotoc county's exhibits at the state fairs has been put on display in the county agent's office at the Chamber of Commerce building. It is nicely arranged and from it one can get a fair idea of what this county can produce. One feature of the exhibit is a row of glass jars containing samples of grain grown here. Ten varieties are shown, which is ample proof of the possibilities of diversification in Pontotoc county.

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock the First National bank of Roff will distribute 20 registered Poland-China gifts to club boys of that part of the county. The boys will make their own arrangements with the bank for the pigs and then try their hands as hog breeders. From all accounts the boys who receive the Durocs from the F. & M. National bank of Roff last spring are making good progress with them. At all events those shown at the township fair gave evidence of careful handling. With backing like these two banks are giving the boys there is no reason why that should not become the chief hog breeding part of the county.

Some very delicious dishes and pies can be made from rhubarb plants. This plant does well here when handled properly and more of it should be set out in the gardens of those who raise their own vegetables. This is the time of the year when the plants should be set out.

A certain young man who had gone to the city and got a job wrote back to his brother who elected to stick to the farm, telling him the joys of city life, in which he said: "Thursday we motored out to the country club, where we golfed until dark. Then we motored to the beach for the week-end." The brother on the farm wrote back as follows: "Yesterday we buggied to town, and baseball all the afternoon. Then we went to Ned's and poked till morning. Today we muled out to the cornfield and geared till sundown. Then we supervised, and then pipped for a while. After that we staircased up to our bedroom, and bedsteaded until the clock struck five."

WAR ON WALTON GROWS HOTTER
North Dakota Woman Warns Against the "N-P" League.

(From Oklahoma News)
Republicans and Constitutional Democrats started the last week of the campaign Monday with renewed attacks on J. C. Walton, Democratic nominee for governor.
Vital Warning
Mrs. J. C. Pearson, Republican state vice-chairman, received a telegram Monday from Mrs. Lyman N. Cary, Mandan, N. D., president of the North Dakota federation of women's clubs, warning against the non-partisan league.
"It has brought only disaster to North Dakota," the message said. "It is a socialist organization under the guise of a farmers' party. State-owned banks, mills, home-builders' associations have proved complete and devastating failures. Millions of tax payers' money have been squandered; bonded indebtedness increased from $200,000 in 1916 to $12,000,000 in 1921.
"Socialist leaders attempted to control public school system and drove out many of the best educators in the state. State circulating libraries contained much socialistic literature."
Better Now
"Leaders proved dishonest and corrupt and those in office were recalled and repudiated by the people. State government now in hands of opponents of the league and they are carrying out a sane program. The telegram was a result of reports that leaders in the federation of women's clubs were backing Walton, Mrs. Pearson said.
"Club women are indignant at the implication that they are supporting Walton," she declared.
Membership Jumps
Membership in the Constitutional Democratic club over the state has increased from 60,000 to 70,000 during the past week, according to L. E. Patterson, secretary.
"To the 70,000 membership must be added the 50,000 women voters in the Good Government club who are fighting the same battle, and we have 120,000 Oklahoma Democrats who so irrevocably stand upon the 'Shawnee platform,'" Patterson said.

To the Votes of the First Commissioner's District
I feel that I ought to give you some idea of the manner in which I handled the funds of the office since I have been your county commissioner, and particularly the funds used in road work.
I have had less money with which to do road work than any other county commissioner since 1916. We also have refused to let a funding bond be put through. But in spite of these things, I believe every one in my district realizes that I have built more roads and constructed more culverts and bridges than any former commissioner in the same length of time. I have made your money go further than others in road work, and have insisted on every dollar spent in getting a dollar in return. I challenge any man to show where we, commissioners, and more particularly anything relating to my district, have permitted any waste to the county, either intentionally or unintentionally.
I have served you a part of one term, sixteen months. If I have made good, give me a chance to continue the work started. Don't let your prejudices or false community pride permit you to vote wrong.
I urge you to go to the polls next Tuesday and approve the record I have made by voting for me.
H. Clay Stephens.
Democratic Nominee for County Commissioner, First District.

The Third Act
By ANTHONY REIMERT
(© 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)

Two men were seated at a cafe in Johannesburg, watching the singer. She was a beautiful woman of about thirty years, and she sang divinely. There was a cry of "encore!"

The elder clutched the younger by the arm. "Do you know her?" he asked.

The other studied the programme. "Madame Elise," he read.

"Yes, Elsie Roxbury, the famous English beauty! Good heavens, why did she come here? You know her story?"

"Something about that man Sanderson, the government official who disappeared, isn't it?"

"Yes. There were two acts to that drama. Sanderson was a well-known man in London. He was engaged to a charming girl, Lord Elforth's daughter. He had everything in life to look forward to—well-born, rich, talented.

"Then he met Elsie Roxbury, and for a while their lives were paradise. That was act one. Lord Elforth's daughter broke off the engagement. That gave him the chance to hold up his head. And nobody cared what the relationship between him and Elsie was. People are tolerant.

"Then—there was a very ugly scandal. He seems to have done something queer about money. Elsie had extravagant tastes. It was hushed up, but it broke him. He had to leave the government service. He had to resign from his clubs. Doors that had been open to him were slammed in his face. That was bad enough, but a second man appeared upon the scene, a rich man. Elsie threw Sanderson over."

"If ever a man was broken by a woman, he was by Elsie Roxbury. Act two saw him a disgraced, discredited fugitive over the face of the earth, penniless. Eventually Sanderson came out here, got a position with a mining company, retrieved himself. Yes, this is the Land of Second Chances.

Elsie Roxbury, of course, went the way of all such women. She disappeared from sight. I had forgotten about her until I saw her twenty minutes ago. Yes, that's she. She always could sing. But—"

His grip tightened on the other's arm.

"We mustn't let her meet Sanderson. He told her that she should never ruin another man's life as she had ruined his. He went to her apartment in London with a revolver before he left England. He fired at her—wounded her, I believe. That scandal was hushed up too.

"But if Sanderson sees Elsie Roxbury here, he'll kill her. I know he will—and he comes in here generally in the evenings. Now—what's to be done?"

The singer's voice rang out in the song from Il Trovatore:

"Ah, I have longed to rest me
Deep in the quiet grave.
Have longed to rest me—"

The elder man's face whitened. "Sanderson!" he whispered.

A man had just entered by a side entrance, and was making his way slowly down the aisle. He was about thirty-five years of age, prematurely gray. His stern face was set rigidly; there was a movement of the fingers in his coat pocket.

The younger of the pair saw that the singer was staring at the man coming down the aisle. She had just finished her song. Plaudits filled the cafe.

There was no stage, no footlights. Elsie Roxbury was singing in the small open space by the piano at the upper end of the cafe. There was no exit there. It was impossible to flee, even if she wished to flee. And Sanderson was coming on inexorably.

"Too late!" muttered the older man. It was far too late. A few steps more and the two would stand face to face. No one in the audience had as yet noticed anything queer. But the two men at the table saw that the singer seemed to have turned to stone. She was staring at the man approaching her as if fascinated, helpless.

She had never appeared so beautiful. The plaudits had hardly ceased. There went up ringing cries again of "encore!"

The singer paid no attention to them. But it seemed to the two men at the table across the cafe as if she made an insignificant gesture, inviting the revolver, as if her lips curved proudly.

Then Elsie Roxbury and the man she had broken were standing face to face.

For an instant they confronted each other; then of a sudden he took her by the hand. She placed her arm through his, smiling up into his face. The two men at the cafe saw him leading her down the aisle. The audience understood nothing.

"By George!" said the younger of the two men.

"That is the third act," said the elder. "It has the merits of surprise."

"Wait for the car to stop, and don't get on until it does stop!" yelled the conductor of an open surface car to a woman making desperate efforts to get aboard as the car slowed up slightly at the corner.

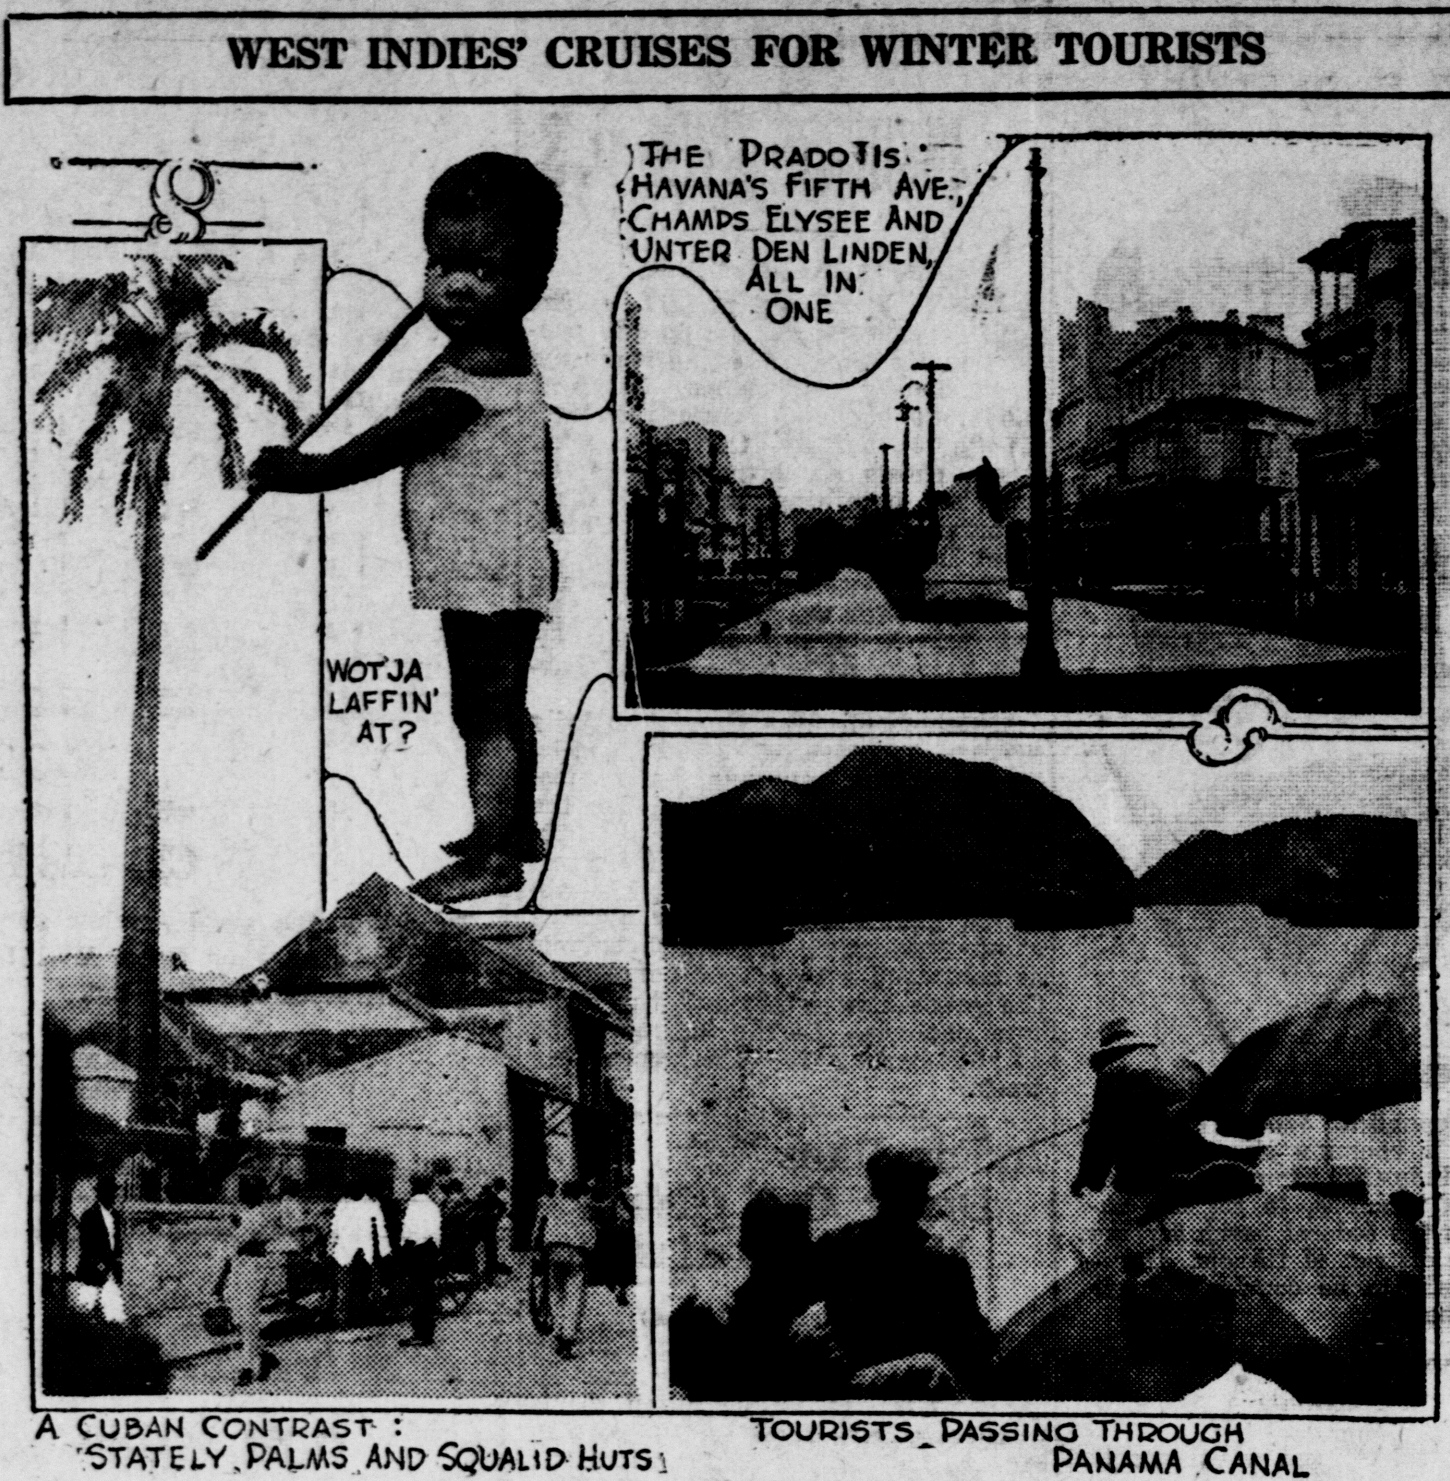

"Well, why doesn't it stop?" yelled the woman as the car took on speed again and made off over the crossing.

"Well, why didn't you jump on?" the conductor yelled back.—New York Evening Post.

WEST INDIES' CRUISES FOR WINTER TOURISTS

A CUBAN CONTRAST: STATELY PALMS AND SQUALID HUTS.

TOURISTS, PASSING THROUGH PANAMA CANAL.

American have developed such an appetite for travel that it requires an all the year round menu to satisfy them. Thousands of those who spent the hot months among the cool mountains and woodland resorts of the north lands, are now planning mid-winter jaunts. California, and the Gulf States still prove a strong magnet, but winter cruises in warm waters grow yearly more popular.

Round-the-world and Mediterranean tours appeal to those who have plenty of money and idle hours. For those who cannot get away for more than a month and who do not wish to incur heavy expense, the West Indies' cruise offers a happy solution.

Several lines of steamships maintain regular runs between New York and these southern points, but it was left for the Canadian Pacific to inaugurate cruises de luxe on special ships over this course. Two such cruises were made in January and February last winter. They proved to successful and elicited so many demands for future cruises that the Canadian Pacific has scheduled two more for the coming winter.

The "Empress of Britain" will again be taken off her trans-Atlantic run for this service. She is the largest ship on the West Indies' route, having registered tonnage of 15,857 tons and is an oil-burner. A swimming tank on deck, adds to the voyage and enjoyment of the voyagers.

On the second day after leaving New York, passengers begin to lay aside their furs and heavy wraps, in another day they are donning summer apparel. Four days voyaging over ever bluer seas lands them at Havana rich in historical lore and lure, Spanish beauties and waving palms. This is the first port of call and is of thirty-nine hours' duration allowing many excursions into Havana's fascinating environs.

These cruises consume a month and allow visits at Havana, Jamaica, Panama, Venezuela, Trinidad, Barbados, Martinique, Port Rico, Nassau and Bermuda or Bahamas.

FOREIGNERS CLOG CHURCH PROGRESS

Clustering Colonies Are Without Any Form of Religion.

(By the Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 23.—The most stubborn and critical situation confronting American cities is the presence of large and congested groups of foreign speaking peoples whose assimilation has been slow, Dr. D. D. Forsyth, corresponding secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal church, declared at the annual meeting of that board here today.

"Immigrants have not been evenly distributed through our country," he said. "Seventy-two percent are in our cities. Some cities are almost solidly foreign-speaking and mere remnants of the normal population are left. In others, great colonies have been developed, known as Little Italies and Little Polands, where the ideals and standards of the Old World are prevalent.

"These people are crowding into our schools, colleges and universities in great numbers. They are in every field of commercial and professional life. They constitute the great body of American toilers. They are to make up in a very large way our citizenship yet they are outside the pale and outside the influence of the institution that has meant most to our country, namely, the Christian church.

"While a surprisingly large percent of these people is not Protestant, a large percent is not Catholic and not Jewish. They have broken with every faith."

During 1922 the board has assisted in 1,220 building enterprises, he said. Three hundred and ninety-one have been erected in cities of 10,000 or more. Eight hundred and twenty-nine were in rural communities. Eight Hundred and eighty-two were in white English speaking annual conferences and 247 in negro annual conferences. Ninety-one were in foreign speaking neighborhoods and twelve were at student centers.

Russian Bandits Show Regard for American Workers

(By the Associated Press)
SAMARA—One of the largest bandit gangs in Russia—1700 strong—whose neither the Red Army nor famine has as yet stamped out, continues to operate in the Pugaehof district, but in no way have the robbers ever attempted to interfere with American relief workers. It has been estimated that about 1200 of the men have horses. The band is made up chiefly of army deserters who operate in units of 15 to 20 men.

According to relief workers, the bandits always make it a point to avoid anything belonging to the American Relief Administration. In Balakova the government warehouse was robbed while the A. R. A. storage house, next door, bulging with coca, sugar, canned milk and other good things to eat, was not even touched.

As an illustration of further consideration by the bandits of the famine sufferers, it is related that some of the gang last summer rode up to one of the A. R. A. village kitchens, merely tasted the food being prepared for the children; pronounced it very good, chucked a few youngsters under the chins, wishing them good appetites, and then went their way—to the home of the village treasurer, which they looted.

BANDITS PULL DARING HOLDUP; CAPTURE LOOT

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 23.—Days of the James and Younger brothers in Missouri were recalled at Gallatin, Mo., early today when six bandits robbed the First National bank of $4,000 in gold and currency, $10,000 in cash was overlooked in the vault.

The robbers entered the town about three o'clock and cornered the night watchman, John Chamberlain, in a stairway near the bank. When Chamberlain showed resistance he was shot and while one of the robbers guarded him others began operations at the bank. The vault and safe were blown open. The explosions were at intervals of about ten minutes and before long a crowd of considerable size had collected in front of the bank. The crowd was held at bay by some of the bandits while the others operated inside.

Numerous shots were fired from sawed off shotguns and revolvers to intimidate the onlookers and when the robbers had finished their work, they re-entered a motor car in which they had come and made their way without molestation. Chamberlain's wounds are not considered dangerous.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat often too much red meat and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

GERMANY LEADS LITERACY TESTS

United States Eleventh on List; Influx Immigrants Given as Cause.

(By the Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 23.—Germany leads the world in literacy, according to a statement today by Garland W. Powell, national director of the Americanism Commission of the American Legion, based upon estimates of the 1920 census. The United States is eleventh on the literacy list of leading nations, Mr. Powell said.

Countries which have fewer illiterates than America, according to Mr. Powell, are Germany, Denmark, Switzerland, Holland, Finland, Norway, Sweden, Scotland, England, Wales and France. The 1920 census showing that more than five million persons, or six percent, of the American population, are illiterate, is too low, because a confession of illiteracy to a census taker was necessary to enroll the person among those who can neither read nor write," Mr. Powell declared. "This made it easy for the illiterate to conceal his ignorance, since there was no test of literacy."

A gain in illiteracy of 117,344 in twelve states during the period 1910—1920, was, for the most part, due to those states having received the greatest influx of immigrants during the last decade, according to the statement.

"The American Legion," is appalled at the discovery of America's low standing," he said. "The correction of this deplorable state of affairs will be one of the foremost activities of the Americanism Commission."

Among the first steps which the Legion will take is the holding of an American Education Week, Dec. 3 to 9, inclusive, and the undertaking of a fight for total exclusion of immigration for a period of five years, it was announced. The Legion's hope is to eliminate illiteracy by 1927, according to Mr. Powell.

In co-operation with the National Education association, the Legion has adopted as its slogan, "Adopt an Illiterate Today," recommending that its members and other patriotic citizens teach immigrants to read and write and to make them familiar with American history, American institutions and system of government. Army draft tests showed that out of 1,552,256 persons examined, 24.9 per cent could neither read nor write, Mr. Powell declared.

Fight to Prevent English Married to Teach Waging

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The fight against married women acting as school teachers in the public schools of England, which has been going on for some time reached a climax when sixty-four married women teachers were discharged from their duties in one of the London suburbs.

During the war married women were practically the only persons available for teaching, and since then they have kept their jobs despite the efforts of many veterans associations to have them expelled in order to allow ex-service men and nurses to resume their positions.

An attempt was made recently to exclude married women from teaching in the schools of Middlesex county but they were able to take the case to chancery court, asking for an injunction against the school authorities. The case still is pending. Efforts to have the married women excluded from the schools under the jurisdiction of the London County Council, however, have failed, and the council has refused to pass a motion to this effect.

Swindlers Meet Very Severe Obstacles in Russian Laws

(By the Associated Press)
MOSCOW—A strenuous campaign against graft among state employees, inaugurated some time ago by the Soviet government, has brought to trial in various parts of the country hundreds of individuals, some of whom already have been convicted and put to death for their trickery.

At Nishni Novgorod eight men accused of swindling the government in connection with the installation of an electrical plant along the Volga, were sentenced to be shot, while 21 others tried simultaneously were sent to prison for various terms of years.

In connection with the collecting of the grain tax imposed by the state, three men in the Moscow district, charged with making false entries by which the government was cheated of great quantities of grain, were sentenced to pay the supreme penalty, while 42 of the same group were acquitted.

FARMER SOON TO BE ADVERTISER

Farm Products Come Under Advertising Scheme in Near Future.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The day when American farm products will be as extensively advertised throughout the country as the automobile and other manufactured articles will soon arrive, Dr. W. M. Jardine, president of the Kansas State Agricultural college, declared today before the Washington Ad club.

"The American farmer has been acquainted with only one side of the advertising business," he said. "In the main, he thinks of advertising as a more or less tricky device employed by middlemen to separate him from his money. He probably has somewhat the same opinion of advertising as a target has of rifle practice.

"The signs of the times, however, are pointing in another direction. Bankers and members of chambers of commerce have begun to take the farmer in as a business partner. They are seeing that they must help him earn more money, and they are beginning to see that he needs help principally with his marketing and selling problems.

"The selling end of the farmer's business has been badly and most unfortunately neglected. Circumstances are to blame in part, he is to blame in part and business men are to blame in part. In a certain sense, advertising men are much to blame. Problems in marketing, advertising and selling the need solution much more than many which have been solved, have been neglected.

"Agricultural men of America have begun to concern themselves with the selling end of their business. They have begun to learn to sell cooperatively, to organize and to respect their organization. The next generation of farmers is going to grow up already 'sold' to the idea of organization."

COMPETITION MAKING OIL CHEAPER FOR SWEDEN

(By the Associated Press)
STOCKHOLM—Competition in supplying Sweden with oil, including gasoline for use in automobiles, has resulted in price reductions until the liquid is cheaper in this country than in New York City. As a result the motor car agencies are enjoying a period of extraordinary prosperity.

American, Russian, Dutch and German oil companies are active in the competitive field.

The High Court of Public Opinion

Worthy goods are the only ones that can successfully stand trial in the High Court of Public Opinion. All others are quickly condemned and sentenced to oblivion.

The manufacturer who advertises, deliberately places his merchandise on trial. He invites your critical inspection. He makes publicly certain claims, on the fulfillment of which depends his commercial success. If he were not sure of his goods he would not dare to advertise. For advertising would put him to a test he could not meet and thus hasten the end of his business career.

Advertising protects you against fraud and inferiority. It saves you money by pointing out for your consideration only the best products.

Well-informed buyers seek news of good merchandise in the advertising columns and are guided by the messages they find there.

Shrine Ring Facts

The Ada News will appropriate this column to the use of candidates for the Shrine Ring for their announcements or any information leading to their qualifications.

Intimate things about the ring candidate from those who know him.

1. Bob Duncan swears that McCauley hasn't been in police court since 1907.

2. Rev. Whitwell says the candidate attends Sunday school irregularly and is never on time.

3. Mr. Wacker, manager of the Wacker Variety store affirms the report that the candidate's last pair of six is paid for.

4. The candidate's wife declares him a most generous husband. He gives her 25c a month spending money and cautions her to save it to buy gasoline for "a rainy day."

5. His neighbors say he is quiet and peaceful—because he is never at home.

6. J. M. Stanfield admits the McCauley grocery bill is only two months in arrears.

7. Victor Vallery, porter for the M. & P. Bank, says the candidate spits on the floor.

8. The candidate declares himself strong for educational organizations—especially lady teachers, in fact his wife says he married one, once.

STRONG MESSAGE HAS 'NICE PEOPLE'

New William de Mille Picture Not a Sermon, However

Cocktail drinking, promiscuous flirting, "crap shooting," and the wearing of daring feminine clothes, used to mark the doers as "fast." But not in this day of "jazz." Nowadays really "nice people" do all these things without censure.

The danger of this attitude, with particular reference to young girls, forms the theme of "Nice People," William de Mille's latest Paramount Picture which comes to the McSwain theatre next Monday and Tuesday. "Nice People," isn't a sermon. It's a particular entertaining story with a fascinating romance and real dramatic power. But with these it carries a powerful theme directed against the attitude of a large portion of modern society.

An all-star cast headed by Wallace Reid, Bebe Daniels, Conrad Nagel and Julia Faye portrays this story which was adapted by Clara Beranger from Rachel Crothers' play of the same name.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL CONTINUED

District Chairman Assigned Under Plans to be Started Here Tuesday.

Preparations are under way for the launching of the Pontotoc County Red Cross roll call and subscription for the United Charities, which begins here Tuesday morning, according to an announcement of Mrs. Orville Sneed.

The Red Cross Roll Call was postponed from the original date the drive was to begin because of the inactivity of the committees. At a recent meeting it was decided to begin a second drive under new plans.

Following are the assigned districts in the city and their workers:

Block 97 between Broadway and Rennie Aves. and Main and Twelfth streets. W. C. Duncan, chairman.

Block 96 and East between Main and 12th and East of Rennie. T. B. Blake, chairman.

Block 92 between Main and Tenth and Broadway and Rennie. J. A. Smith, chairman.

Block 93 and east between Main and 10th street and east of Rennie. M. Levin, chairman.

Block 91 between Broadway and Townsend, Main and 10th Sts. M. C. Wilson, chairman.

Block 90 and east between Main and 10th and east of Townsend. C. E. Cunningham, chairman.

Block 98 between Broadway and Townsend, Main and 12th. R. W. Simpson, chairman.

Block 99 and west between Main and 12th and west of Townsend. D. C. Abney, chairman.

Block 105 and west being south side of 12th St. from City Hall west. J. C. Deaver, chairman.

Normal. A. Linscheid, chairman. Industrial plants. C. V. Gowing, chairman.

City schools. J. E. Hickman, chairman.

Swiss Alien Held For Alleged Plot to Bomb Buildings

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. —Julius Reynolds, a native of Switzerland, was arrested today on a charge of being the author of a note received by the custodian of Borough Hall, on Tuesday in which the writer who claims responsibility for the Wall street explosion in 1920, threatened to bomb the hall.

The police said that Reynolds talked irrationally and he was sent to a hospital for observation.

Reynolds admitted writing the letter, the police said, but declared he did not intend to carry out the threat.

OIL INDUSTRY OF AMERICA SHOWING LARGE INCREASE

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 23. —The American oil industry of today, including 275,000 wells producing 1,500,000 barrels of oil daily, started with one well producing 25 barrels a day, according to the American Petroleum Institute.

Col Edwin L. Drake, a pioneer in the oil industry, brought in the first producing well in 1859 near Titusville, Pa. At the time the well was put to the pump, the world was using fats and greases for illuminating and lubricating purposes and the automobile industry was unknown. Today upwards of 11,000,000 automobiles and thousands of tractors, oil burning ships, airplanes, submarines, motor-boats and portable engines depend on oil and its product for power and lubrication, the institute estimates.

BUTLER NAMED TO SUCCEED DAY AS CHIEF JUSTICE

Mr. Butler is a democrat. He has been practicing attorney in Minnesota since 1888 and has been counsel for the government in numbers of important cases. He is a native of Minnesota county and is 56 years old.

Tiger Cubs Take Easy Tilt From Coalgate Squad

Scrubs from East Central college Wednesday afternoon took an easy game from the Coalgate high school eleven on the Coalgate gridiron.

Tiger cubs were far superior to the Coalgate players and it was nothing more than a scrimmage for the collegiate men. Score was 27 to 0. Coach M. Z. Thompson was with the squad, watching it work for the first time this year. He stated that some of his first string men for next season are now playing on the scrub eleven.

Ada players were more experienced, heavier and had the advantage of the game from the start. It was the third game the cubs had played this year.

Clemenceau Leaves New York for Tour Overland to Boston

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. —As Georges Clemenceau left Boston today in Charley M. Swabb's private car, he said he welcomed criticism of his speech by members of congress.

"That's good," Clemenceau said, when he read a morning paper's account of what congress was saying. "That's what I came to America for, to invite discussion. That's my idea of democratic free speech. It is what I found when I came here more than 50 years ago and I certainly did not expect to find any change."

WOMAN PRAISES RED CROSS WORK

Lauds Work of Mrs. Sneed in Handling Problems of Her Office.

Few people really stop to think or to properly value the real worth of the Red Cross in peace time and especially the value of a local chapter and its secretary. The following story of an actual occurrence that took place in Ada and was handled by our efficient secretary, Mrs. Orville Sneed, is only an illustration of what is continually going on in this work.

One day last week a young boy, 13 years of age arrived in town and went to one of the small cafes to get him something to eat, and the lady who waited upon him questioned him about himself and he told her that he lost his mother some five years ago and that two weeks ago his father died in Oklahoma City, giving the address on G. Street, and the name of a Mr. Stevens, whom he said took part in burying his father. After the boy was brought to Mrs. Sneed with the view in mind of her buying him a ticket to his uncle at Gainesville, Texas, he persisted in his story that he had told the other lady and said that he had walked that night and morning from Konawa and seemed very tired. This story and the looks of the poor boy, without father or mother, and trying to make his way from Oklahoma City to his Uncle's where he could go to school, would have deceived the most of us, but not our efficient secretary.

Mrs. Sneed proceeded to get in touch with the Provident Society's office in Oklahoma City and had them call at the address given by the boy and there they learned that the Stevens that the boy had mentioned was to boy's own brother-in-law, and his sister was very much surprised that he was away from home, and she told the worker that the boy lived with his parents at Konawa, Oklahoma, and was supposed to be in school, and then the boy broke down and told the whole story. Mrs. Sneed got him a ticket and sent him home on the evening Katy, where the most of us would have felt for the boy's story and sent him on away from his parents. Yesterday Mrs. Sneed received the following letter from the boy's father:

Konawa, Oklahoma, Nov. 19, 1922

American Red Cross, Mrs. Orville Sneed, Ada, Oklahoma.

Dear Sister:

I am glad my boy, Arthur was taken in charge by you and sent home. He is too young to leave home now. We have a good school here and I want him to go. Our teacher just gave him what he thought was right. I will not whip him this time, as this is his first trip and there were other boys helped to get him away. He will be all O. K. now. I have given to the Red Cross for a long time but I am paid in full now for all that I ever gave.

So, hoping to still help, I am, Yours truly, C. M. Philpott.

Believed Settlement in Rexroat Case Made at Secret Conference

(By the Associated Press)

McALESTER, Nov. 23. —Secrecy surrounded the visit to this city of ten persons alleged to be here for a settlement of the Opal-Kinney-Rexroat affair. Three of the party arrived yesterday evening from Ardmore and were joined by others, said to include members of the Rexroat family, and principals in the wealthy infant girl's escapade in which she was sought several weeks last year and found married to Ludie Kinney. Oil lands leased including millions of dollars are said to be in the settlement, but information was refused local newspapers and no local persons were called into the conference held at 9 o'clock this morning. U. T. Rexroat, father of Opal, accompanied by Stanley Marsh and Charles A. Oakley, departed immediately after an alleged agreement had been reached.
